

MEET THE SARCOMA EXPERTS

Fourth Annual Forum

Sponsored by the Jennifer Hunter Yates Sarcoma Foundation

Saturday, March 20, 2010

9:00 AM – 12:00 PM

Massachusetts General Hospital Cancer Center, O'Keefe Auditorium

Sarcomas are malignant tumors of the connective tissue (fat, blood vessels, skin tissues, and cartilage).

There are approximately over 12,000 new cases of sarcoma each year in the United State. Sarcomas can develop in children and adults.

MODERATORS

Anne Fiore, NP

Judianne Henderson, NP

EXPERTS

Edwin Choy, MD

Yen-Lin Chen, MD

Thomas DeLaney, MD

David Harmon, MD

Francis Hornicek, MD

Susan Kattapuram, MD

Eric Chienwei Liao, MD

John Mullen, MD

Petur Nielsen, MD

Kevin Raskin, MD

Andrew Rosenberg, MD

Daniel Rosenthal, MD

Joseph Schwab, MD

Dempsey Springfield, MD

OBJECTIVES

What is sarcoma?

What causes sarcoma?

Treatments for sarcoma

What is in the pipeline for sarcoma treatment?

Please RSVP by Wednesday, March 3, 2010
To Donna Silva at 617-726-8748 or dsilva@partners.org

MASSACHUSETTS
GENERAL HOSPITAL

CANCER CENTER